

It is important to have competition. Satellite Radio, and TV offer more people the opportunity to enjoy capabilities not otherwise available. Locally oriented programming delivered via satellite (whether Traffic, Weather or otherwise) fills an important void.

Let the everyone compete. Local stations providing this service typically are carrying 14 minutes of commercials, station promos and the like every 30 minutes--Why? Because there is no competition.

Keep the airwaves competitive.

Thank you